

Cholla District Network News

Vice Mayor Manny Martinez, City of Glendale

June 5, 2009

Boards & Commissions. The Glendale City Council has appointed several residents to serve on advisory boards and commissions. Many thanks to Cholla District residents Pascal Tjahjo, Parks & Recreation Advisory Commission and Dr. Daniel Smith, Citizens Transportation Oversight Commission and all the others who have volunteered to serve.

Glendale's 18 boards and commissions assist the City Council in making important policy decisions that impact the community. These volunteer citizen advisory groups research, study and discuss specific Glendale projects and issues and then forward their recommendations to the City Council.

To request an application to serve on a city advisory group or for more information, click here or call the Council Office at (623) 930-2249. Board and commission members must reside in Glendale.

Habitat for Humanity Donation. Discount Cab presented Habitat for Humanity Central Arizona with a check for more than $8,200 on June 2 to help advance the non-profit's environmental initiatives. The state's largest taxi company donated one dollar for every cab ride it made on Earth Day and earmarked the proceeds for a Habitat for Humanity environmental initiative.

With Vice Mayor Martinez and Councilmember Goulet in attendance, Discount Cab presented the check in front of the first Platinum-certified LEED affordable home in the United States, which was built in Glendale by Habitat for Humanity.

Hook a Kid on Golf Clinic. Get your kids, ages 8-13 years old, outdoors and learning something new with Glendale Parks & Recreation Department's Hook a Kid on Golf clinic.

The week-long program is an introductory clinic that teaches golf skill development to kids who may not have had the opportunity to learn yet. It is a complete introduction to the sport, including group lessons, a set of golf clubs and a golf bag, apparel, hat and golf balls, all for just $200 for Glendale residents, or $240 for non-residents. The one week sessions run from 8-11 a.m. in June and July. Click here or call (623) 930-2820 to register.

2009 Ruth Byrne Historic Preservation Award. Congratulations to Nelda Crowell, this year's recipient of the Ruth Byrne Historic Preservation Award.

The Historic Preservation Commission selected Ms. Crowell, Archivist for the Thunderbird School of Global Management, from among five nominees, all of whom have made outstanding contributions to Glendale's historic heritage. Nelda has meticulously collected, preserved, organized, and promoted a vast collection of documents that record the history of a community landmark from its beginning as Thunderbird Field, a training facility for World War II pilots, to its present status as Thunderbird School of Global Management.

Thunderbird has played a significant role in both local and national history. Click here for more information on this award.

Citizen Police Academy. The Glendale Police Department is accepting applications for the upcoming Citizen Police Academy that starts on August 12, 2009. The Citizen Academy is a free program designed to give participants a chance to learn, hands on, about police operations, such as the use of canines, crime scene investigations, tactical operations and more.

Participants must be at least 18 years of age, undergo a background check and fingerprinting process. The Police Department provides the fingerprint service as part of the application process. Applications must be completed and submitted no later than July 22nd.

The academy is 11 weeks long and most classes are held on Wednesday nights from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Glendale Regional Public Safety Training Center. (There are two Saturday classes, and one Monday and Tuesday evening class.) Click here to apply online. For more information, call (623) 772-7118.

Friday Nite Lights. Enjoy late night shopping and dining and a hometown atmosphere at Friday Nite Lights in Catlin Court every third Friday from 5-9 p.m. Stroll along brick-lined sidewalks and enjoy charming bungalows-turned-shops, where you'll find treasures you won't be able to leave behind! The Catlin Court Shopping District is located at 58th Avenue and Palmaire. For more information click here or call (623) 930-4500.

Centennial Concert & Carnival June 18. Glendale's centennial year is about to kick off with some old-fashioned summer fun! The city has planned a Centennial Concert & Carnival on Thursday, June 18, from 6-9 p.m. at Murphy Park in Historic Downtown Glendale.

Glendale's Summer Band Concert will take place that Thursday evening, beginning at 8 p.m. For the Centennial kickoff, the band will perform a special show celebrating music from each decade from the last 100 years.

The prelude to the concert will be an old-fashioned carnival hearkening back to Glendale's earlier days. Highlights will include a classic car exposition, antique police cars and fire engines, as well as a demonstration and display from the Glendale Historical Society.

The city of Glendale will celebrate its official anniversary as an incorporated city on June 18, 2010. Throughout the year, the city will honor its centennial at various events and activities.

This event is made possible with the generous support of our sponsors, including Sanderson Ford, the Glendale Star, Safeway, Papa Ed's Ice Cream and Kalil Bottling. For more information, call (623) 930-4500. Click here for all the details.

B.A.G. I.T. (Bus and Gus Individual Training). A class is being offered to Glendale residents who are interested in learning how to travel on the bus. No need to register, just show up and learn how to ride Valley Metro Public Transportation or Gus the Bus. Join us on June 25 at 10 a.m. or 6 p.m., at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St., in room 102. For more information, click here or call (623) 930-2035.
